ASK BIDS FOR SEWER SYSTEM AT GRANDVIEW

Another step in determining the feasibility of a sewer system for Grandview Terrace has been taken by Cumberland Twp., according to a legal advertisement which appears today in The Gettysburg Times seeking bids for three separate projects to serve the needs of the community north of Gettysburg on Rt. 34 from the Table Rock Rd. to Meadow Valley Abattoir.

There are approximately 660 homes and commercial establishments, including the Bankers Life Insurance building, several garages and service stations and Town and Country Gas Co. The Bankers group employs about 130 persons.

Construction will begin only if the bids indicate that the project is possible from a financial standpoint, according to Warren R. Appar, secretary of the Cumberland Township Authority.

OPEN BIDS OCT. 1

Sealed bids for the three contracts will be accepted until 8 p.m. October 1, according to the notice, and will be opened at a public meeting in the auditorium of the Eisenhower Elementary School.

Contract No. 1 calls for the construction of a sanitary sewerage system and miscellaneous appurtenances.

Contract No. 2 specifies construction of the sewage treatment plant and sewage lift station, including mechanical work and miscellaneous appurtenances.

Contract No. 3 is for electrical work for the sewage treatment plant and sewage lift station.

URGED BY STATE

Copies of the plans for the proposed system, specifications and other contract documents are available from the consulting engineer, William E. Sees Jr., 4335 N. Front St., Harrisburg, or at the office of Donald M. Swope, solicitor, 104 Baltimore St.

The issue of a sewer disposal system for Grandview Terrace has been under discussion for several years as the result of the expanded population in the area. The state Department of Health has issued several recommendations over the last two years for construction of a system to meet the health requirements for community developments. The Township Authority made application for federal funds last year to assist the financing of the project.

FARMERS TOLD OF WHEAT PLAN

Details of the 1965 wheat program were outlined Thursday night at a meeting of farmers at the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, rear of N. Stratton St.

The session was held to permit farmers to complete plans for the next growing season, and file applications under the 1965 voluntary wheat program. Sign-up for the wheat program will extend through October 2.

J. Glenn Miller, office manager for the ASC, told the farmers: "Operation of the 1965 program generally will be about the same as for 1964. Some program provisions have been modified. The program is entirely voluntary and is more flexible, offering farmers a number of attractive choices."

"Program benefits include price-support loans averaging $1.38 per bushel in Adams County on the participating farm's wheat production, domestic marketing certificates worth 75 cents a bushel on as much as 45 per cent of the farm allotment's normal yield, and export marketing certificates worth 30 cents a bushel on as much as 35 per cent of the allotment's normal production. Wheat diversion payments will be based on one-half the county price-support loan rate and the normal yield for the farm."

"New program provisions for 1965 include the opportunity for growers taking part in both programs to substitute wheat for feed grains or feed grains for wheat, and the establishment of an oats-rye base for a farm if this is requested."

Growers who wish to gain more information about these or other program features may obtain details at the ASCS county office, Miller said.

MORE SPECIAL REGISTRATION TIME PROVIDED

Registration continued to occupy much of the county commissioners time this morning.

Approval was given for a special registration period September 8 from 4 to 10 o'clock at the former Bren-Da Drive-in along the Fairfield Rd. The structure is now a union headquarters.

Cletus Hess, Shoemakers Union representative, and Democratic Chairman Fred G. Klunk asked for the registration, claiming that it will make it easier for the shoe workers and other factory workers to sign to vote.

SPLIT DECISION

Commissioners Atlee Robert and Harrison Fair approved, with Commissioner G. Edwin Motter opposing. Fair said: "We ought to try various ways to see if we can come up with a better method of getting more people registered."

Motter raised the question of precedent and timing, holding that "these things should be arranged in time so they could be advertised along with other registrations," and saying that it sets a precedent by which "others could also rightly ask for special registrations in their areas. We might have to have a registration at every factory in the county."

Hess promised the union will promote registration by workers throughout the county at the special session September 8.

Reports from the first night's experience at the Adams County Fair and the Kingsdale firemen's festival showed 23 enrolled Thursday night at Kingsdale, 12 Republicans and 11 Democrats, while eight enrolled at the Adams County Fair, five Republicans and three Democrats.

SPECIAL REGISTRARS

At Adams County Fair the special registrars were Miss Patricia Mummert, a deputy clerk of courts; Commissioner Motter and Commissioner and Mrs. Fair.

At Kingsdale a larger number of registrars were on duty, some staying only a short time because they will be registering on forth-

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Accepting their nominations with the roaring tributes of the Democratic National Convention, President Johnson and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey quickly turned today to the practical business of shaping a campaign aimed at defeating their Republican opponents.

Before they were to leave for a weekend at the LBJ ranch near Johnson City, Tex., the President and Humphrey, his vice presidential running mate, arranged to brief the party's national committee on their fast-forming political plans.

INTERRUPTED BY APPLAUSE

First Humphrey and then Johnson stood Thursday night in the blazing lights on the podium to tell thousands of Democrats at the closing session of the convention that they had enlisted their energies in a crusade to build "the great society" in a tumultuous world.

The President, interrupted time and again by applause, said, in accepting nomination for a first four-year elective term, that the election is "not between liberals and conservatives, party and party, platform and platform."

"It is between courage and timidity," he shouted. "It is between those who see what can be, and those who want only to maintain the status quo. It is between those who welcome the future and those who turn away from its promise."

MAKES PLEDGES

He pledged "a constant, patient effort to move the world toward peace."

"I will use the full resources of the federal government," to assure fair play to all Americans, he continued, and said that his talents would be directed toward "bringing our nation together in unity."

"In pursuit of this common purpose," he said, "I believe we shall someday see an America that knows no North, or South, no East, or West — an America undivided by creed or color, untorn by suspicion or strife."

LOTS TO YELL ABOUT

To accomplish this, he said that "those who break the law — those who create disorder — whether in the North or in the South — must be caught and brought to justice."

"In every part of this country

PARK ASKING BIDS ON NEW FEATURES HERE

The Gettysburg National Park is seeking bids for seven new exhibits, four interpretive stations and other improvements scheduled to be made this autumn. Park Superintendent Kittredge Wing said today.

Bids are to be opened at the Park office September 15.

The four interpretive stations will be similar to the one presently installed at Meade's headquarters. The stations will include a tape recorded device which gives brief details of certain sections of the field. A button pushed by the visitor will activate the station. One is to be placed at Little Round Top, one on Oak Ridge and two will be constructed near the Virginia Monument. The first station there, a short distance east of the driveway around the Virginia monument, will give details of Pickett's charge. Also to be constructed will be a five-foot path to the east for 123 feet leading to a second station where Lee's comments on the defeat of charge will be heard.

Included in the work will be two stone pylons, 333 square yards of bituminous paving, and five concrete "wheel stops."

The work on which bids are sought includes the fabrication and installation of the interpretive exhibit supports, mounting of the exhibits provided by the Park Service, construction of stone masonry and wood bench combination audio boxes and accessories, etc.

Complete details of the work to be performed are available from Assistant Park Superintendent Samuel G. Sollenberger.

The work is to begin 10 days after the contract is awarded and to be completed within 60 days thereafter.

GRASS FIRE

Gettysburg firemen were called Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock to a grass fire at the farm of John K. Lott, Gettysburg R. 4.

LOCAL CWRT TOURS DAUPHIN BATTLE AREAS

Gettysburg's Civil War Round Table Thursday night visited the Camp Hill-Lemoyne section to hear how Confederate troops attacked Union soldiers there preparatory to invading Harrisburg — and then were called to Gettysburg to take part in the fighting that had begun here 101 years ago.

Had the Battle of Gettysburg not occurred at that time Harrisburg very likely would have fallen into Confederate hands, John J. Carbaugh, past president of the Harrisburg Civil War Round Table, who with Robert Hoffsummer of the Harrisburg Round Table served as guide for the Gettysburg group, told the visitors.

Harrisburg's defenders were mostly untrained men who had been called from their homes only a few days before to repel the Confederates marching into Pennsylvania.

UNTRAINED TROOPS

Cobaugh noted, as an example, that one of the Union artillery units bravely prepared to repel the invaders found there were none among their group who knew how to fire the cannon they had been given.

Civilians from the Harrisburg area put up fortifications in the Lemoyne area and the local round table Thursday night visited several remaining portions of the huge "Fort Washington" established on the banks of a hill in Lemoyne overlooking the Susquehanna. All that remains of the fort now are some sections of the earth walls thrown up hurriedly to stop the Confederates from approaching the bridge to Harrisburg.

With the first fort constructed on the side of the hill the defenders looked up to see that there was a higher portion of the hill ahead of them and there established "Fort Couch," sections of which were visited during the tour.

Cobaugh and Hoffsummer said tradition has it that the camp of Union troops on the hill led to the name Camp Hill.

FEDERAL MUNITIONS

Navy and Army rushed cannon and ammunition to Fort Washington and Fort Couch. There were many different types of cannon and as many different types of ammunition. Cobaugh added "un-

PENNA. SHARED MANY HONORS AT CONVENTION

By JACK LYNCH Associated Press Writer ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Pennsylvania delegates went home today with mixed reactions about the 1964 Democratic convention but highly optimistic they will win the November election for the national and state-wide tickets.

Some of the 285 delegates felt that Pennsylvania shared as many honors as any state in a convention which was pretty much cut and dried before it opened last Monday.

Others expressed disappointment that they had little to do with shaping the convention, that there was none of the high drama of the 1956 and 1960 gatherings in which Pennsylvanians played leading roles.

PREDICT BIG VICTORY But all of them believed that the ticket of President Johnson and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey would run strong in Pennsylvania.

Former Gov David L. Lawrence and state chairman Otis B. Morse predicted President Johnson would carry Pennsylvania by a much higher margin than did the late President Kennedy, who won by slightly less than 100,000 votes in 1960.

Francis R. Smith, Philadelphia Democratic chairman, and Pittsburgh Mayor Joseph Barr both said the state's two largest cities would improve on big margins given to Kennedy.

SEE JOHNSON SWITCH However, leaders of the state's third largest area, around Scranton and Wilkes-Barre — where Kennedy was exceedingly popular — doubted they could do as well.

Patrick Melody, Lackawanna County chairman, and Dr. John L. Dorris, Luzerne County Democratic leader, said they hoped to provide margins of about 25,000. In 1960, Luzerne County gave Kennedy 33,000 and Lackawanna County gave him a 32,000 lead.

Barr and Morse said some of the state's business leaders are switching their support to President Johnson.

LAWRENCE HAD KEY JOB Harry Boyer, president of the state AFL-CIO and a delegate, said that labor could not have picked a better vice presidential candidate than Sen. Humphrey.

Because Johnson and Humphrey were nominated by acclamation no state gained precedence on the floor.

But many delegates pointed out that Lawrence, as chairman of the convention's credentials committee, helped work out a compromise to prevent a floor fight over the seating of the Alabama and Mississippi delegations.

MISS BLATT APPEARED Other Pennsylvanians on the important credentials committee were Mrs. Louise M. Johns of West Chester vice chairman of the Democratic state committee and Edward Lynett, Scranton publisher.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark was a member of the platform committee. Miss Genevieve Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs and the apparent candidate for U.S. Senator, introduced U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee in 1952 and 1956.

SOME SORE SPOTS There were a few sore spots in the view of most Keystone State delegates.

They didn't get nearly as many of the 7,000 convention hall guests tickets as they wanted—causing a daily scramble to satisfy some of the many requests from visiting Pennsylvanians.

Weather Five-day forecasts for Aug. 29 through Sept. 2: Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, southeastern New York —Temperatures are expected to average two to five degrees above normal. RECEPTION IS HELD HONORING MRS. KENNEDY

By JOY MILLER

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy greeted thousands of Democratic delegates with a smile and a handshake at a reception in her honor. But she left town before the convention paid tribute to her assassinated husband in its closing session.

The five-hour-long reception, given Thursday by Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Mrs. Harriman, was the first large public function the former First Lady has attended since last November's tragedy.

Accompanied by several of the Kennedy clan — sisters-in-law Eunice Shriver, Jean Smith and Pat Lawford — Mrs. Kennedy flew in for the occasion, summer home in Newport, R.I. TRIBUTE TOO MUCH

A family spokesman said the filmed memorial tribute to her husband would be too much of an emotional ordeal for her.

The reception, held in a hotel's white and gold ballroom, was so large it had to be divided into three sections. Lynda Johnson, the President's 20-year-old daughter, dropped in on the first, while her mother paid her respects later.

At each session the former First Lady, who wore a simple V-neck, sleeveless, two-piece white ribbed silk dress and white shoes and gloves, made a brief speech.

"I want to thank all of you for coming who helped President Kennedy in 1960," she said in a soft, barely audible voice.

Roaring Tributes

Humphrey gave the crowd a lot more to yell about.

The ebullient Minnesota senator, in his acceptance speech, flailed away at Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater. His tack indicated that the Democrats will have a punch-slinging equivalent of Rep. William E. Miller, the GOP vice presidential nominee, in the campaign.

FIRES BOTH BARRELS

Humphrey extolled Johnson as "the president of all the people" and invited "responsible and progressive Republicans" to enlist under the Democratic banner.

Earlier in the day, addressing a rally of 15,000 Young Democrats, he cautioned them not to boo the mention of Goldwater's name. His theme: "Be kind to Republicans. They might join us."

As the convention howled approval, Humphrey let Goldwater have it with both barrels as a man "facing backward — against the mainstream of history."

MORE SPECIAL

Special registrations will also take place on the last three nights of the South Mountain Fair. The special registrations are being held as an experiment by the commissioners to determine how best to permit the public to register to vote.

Other business this morning included discussion on bridges. Repairs are to be made at the covered bridge near John Mansberger's home in the Gardners area. Plans have been completed for repair work to the Kuhn's Ford bridge near East Berlin, and bids will be sought for that work in the near future.

fortunately none of the ammunition fitted any of the guns."

The untrained and ill-equipped militia which comprised the Army of the Susquehanna before Harrisburg was met by Brig. Gen. Jenkins' units of General Ewell's Confederate Second Corps on June 28, 1863. The Confederates arrived in what is now Camp Hill and set up cannon at the Eberley home—still standing, and visited during the tour, and at the "Peace Church," built in 1798 also still standing, which was visited by the round table members.

The Confederate cannon zeroed in on the area around "Oyster Point," where various roads met. The round table viewed the "point" about a quarter block from the present Dutch Pantry restaurant along Route 15 as it passes through Camp Hill. The tavern that gave the "point" its name, an inn operated by a family named Oyster, is now filled with offices.

INFANTRY ADVANCE

On June 29, 1863, Jenkins' infantry moved forward. The Union force was driven out from Oyster Point and back along the road leading to Harrisburg about 10 blocks. Then the Confederates fell back.

At the Peace Church Cabaugh and Hoffsommer told of how Jenkins, during his approach to Harrisburg, had entered Mechanicsburg. Just before arriving he had a shell fired into the town—it exploded in the square. Jenkins then rode in and demanded 1,500 rations from the mayor. He was told it would be impossible to round up that much food so early on a Sunday morning. Jenkins suggested he could let 800 of his men forage for themselves, going into the homes to find what they would. The mayor quickly decided he could locate the rations.

CALLED TO GETTYSBURG

Because the fighting was interrupted by the call for the Confederates to go to Gettysburg the forts built by the civilians never actually were under gunfire.

Cabaugh said as a result there never was a test of a fear expressed by some of those who built the defenses. The workers of a century ago had looked at the shale from which they were constructing the walls and expressed the fear that every time a cannon shell would hit the walls, showers of shale would become shrapnel throughout the forts.

Security?

The Hermit Crab exists from day to day in a home that is not his own. He moves from shell to shell — as he outgrows one he moves to another. Many people similarly go through life without ever having the sense of belonging . . . security . . . that comes from home ownership. The Gettysburg National Bank likes to help folks acquire the sense of belonging and security that comes from owning their own home . . . so, if there's a new home in your heart, come in and talk your plans over with us. You'll receive sound, friendly, financial advice, and you'll get the feeling so many people have — It's nice to do business with the people at The Gettysburg National Bank.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

One of the largest audiences attracted by any summer concert by the Blue and Gray band gathered Thursday evening to hear the musicians play under the direction of Charles Rodgers on the Gettysburg College campus in front of Stevens Hall. Ira Wilson played the trumpet solo in "The Lost Chord."

The Adams County Free Library building fund has been increased by $1,500 through donations of two Gettysburg lodges. The Elks contributed $1,000, the largest donation given by any local organization to date, and the Moose lodge donated $500. These gifts bring to $4,000 the total funds to be used to pay off the debt on the former county jail building and to finance remodeling of the building for use as a library. About $15,000 is required.

Approximately 700 persons from Virginia, W. Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania attended the 39th annual anniversary of the George W. and Agnes Hoffman Orphanage near Littlestown. Over 300 dinners were served in the dining room and Emmanuel cottage.

New Oxford will vote this fall on whether it wants Sunday baseball and football. A petition asking the question to be placed on the ballot was presented to the county election board from the New Oxford borough council.

Between 1,500 and 1,800 Adams County war veterans are not registered to vote, according to the Gettysburg VFW, which is conducting a check of registrations in the county.

Dr. Levi Gilbert, former Adams Countyman and brother of J. W. Gilbert, has been appointed general supervisor of the San Jose, Calif., school system. A graduate of Franklin and Marshall, he holds a masters degree from the University of Pennsylvania and a Ph. D. in education from the University of Pittsburgh.

Adams County's permanent honor roll of names of men and women who served in the armed forces has been completed by placing glass over the fronts of the wooden frames holding the names. The honor roll is located in the court house hallway and contains more than 5,000 names.

Today's Talk

KNOW WHAT YOU WANT
The winners in life's game are not always those who have the most brains, or the most advantages, but those who know what they want out of life and set themselves to get it. They are the winners.

There is nothing so valuable as a set purpose and a determination to follow it out to a successful conclusion. Every great enterprise has its inception in an idea. And often this one idea becomes the father of an endless number of ideas. Every useful invention sets in motion a continual line of effort toward its improvement. How crude are the inventions of yesterday as compared with those of today! People who know what they want, ask no odds of anyone. They just go ahead and getting nearer and nearer to their goal. Of course all of us get tips and help along the way, but no one is benefited who doesn't know what he wants!

The reason why there are so many flounders in the world is that they do not know what they want, so no one is interested in helping them to something. Knowing what you want is the first step to any success in life. Henry Ford knew what he wanted when he worked out that crude model of a gasoline engine. So did Edison, as he worked at an endless number of ideas that have since benefited all mankind.

Rex Beach was once a brick salesman but one day he wrote a short story, sent it to a publisher, and received a check in return. That encouraged him to try again, which he did. Then he dropped everything to devote himself to writing — for he decided that this was what he wanted most to do.

Many a person's life has been ruined because of the opposition of others to the one thing most desired in life. If you know what you want to do, let no one divert you from it! An expert bricklayer, who loves his work, and takes pride in it, is a far worthier human being than the lawyer who wishes that he were a portrait painter.

Just Folks

CROWS
I sometimes think the noisy crows like squabbling men who come to blows. Conventions old whereat they may discuss the issues of their day. In woods, not very far from here, The black-robed delegates appear, And stationed on the tallest tree The wily sentinel I see. Soon rivaling all human dins, A disputation loud begins. 'Tis plain the crows do not agree On platform plank or policy.

Vociferously they debate Beyond a doubt affairs of state, And greet with boos or loud applause Some eloquently uttered caws. With clamor very much like man's They imitate Republicans, or wrangling long I take it that's A sign that they are Democrats. But here's the question I propose: Are crows like men or men like crows?

Cites Progress In Vets' Legislation

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The administrator of veterans affairs said today that in the past four years "there has been almost unparalleled progress in the field of veterans legislation and benefits." He also characterized critics of such benefits as having lost faith in America.

In a prepared address, John S. Gleason, Jr., told the 20th annual National Convention of the Amvets. "We are paying out in pension and compensation well over $900 million more than we were in 1960."

"The concern for the rehabilitation of veterans felt by a grateful nation . . . expressed 20 years ago in the GI Bill . . . has been reaffirmed by Presidents Kennedy and Johnson . . . by the very nature of the intense activity in veterans affairs since 1960."

Owner, 98, To Sell 1928 Model A Ford

PATTON, Pa. (AP) — Henry Myers, 98, wants to sell his 1928 Model A Ford sedan because there's too much traffic and it moves too fast.

Myers said he bought the car new and paid $600 for it. He said it's been driven 68,000 miles—never over 50 miles per hour—and is in good condition. "The fastest I ever drove was 45 miles an hour and that was because I was in a funeral procession and I had to keep up with the other cars," he said.

Braves Bomb Giants And White Sox Lose To Twins; Birds, Chisox Open Series

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Hank Fischer, who had failed to last two innings in each of his previous four starts, pitched a three-hitter as Milwaukee pummeled San Francisco 13-0 Thursday night.

The American League-leading Orioles were idle, but they open a vital four-game series tonight with the Chicago White Sox whose 5-2 loss to Minnesota Thursday put them one-half game behind the Orioles.

The teams played a four-game series last weekend, with Baltimore winning three times and moving from one-half game behind the White Sox to 1½ in front. The upcoming four games — two tonight and one each Saturday and Sunday — will be the last between the contenders. Baltimore holds an 8-6 edge.

TAKE EARLY LEAD

Milwaukee gave Fischer a quick edge against the Giants, and the 24-year-old right-hander used it to great advantage.

In those previous four starts, Fischer didn't give the Braves a chance to build a lead for him.

He was battered for 18 runs in four innings in the appearances, running from Aug. 2 through Aug. 15.

The game was the only one in the National League. In other American League games, Detroit nipped Boston 5-4, and Los Angeles bombed Kansas City 7-1.

MAYE HAS HOMER

Fischer received strong support from Rico Carty and Woody Woodward, who each drove in four runs. Carty ignited a six-run first inning with a homer and later tripled in three runs. Woodward climaxed the first-inning outburst with a three-run double and knocked in another run with a single.

Hank Aaron drove in a pair of runs while Lee Maye ended the 16-hit barrage with a homer in the eighth.

Jimmie Hall scored the tie-breaking run in the Twins' ninth on a double steal and a throwing error by Chicago catcher J. C. Martin. Hall had singled and advanced to second on a walk to Bob Allison. When the runners tried a double steal, Martin threw the ball past third base, permitting Hall to come.

ADCOCK GETS 300

Minnesota added two more runs in the inning on Bernie Allen's single and Ed Fisher's wild pitch. The game had been tied 2-2 since the fifth when the White Sox rallied for two runs on Pete Ward's homer and Mike Hersherberger's run-scoring single.

Detroit, trailing 4-2, rallied for three runs in the eighth inning against the Red Sox. Jerry Lumpe tripled in one, and Don Demeter knocked in the other two with a double off relief ace Dick Radatz. Fred Gladding halted a Boston threat in the eighth inning, retiring Dick Stuart on a grounder with the bases loaded.

BUCS AT HOME; WOULD RECOUP OVER PHILLIES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The easiest way to slice the lead of the pennant front-runner is to beat him. With each victory, you gain a full game.

And when you're 13½ games behind as the Pittsburgh Pirates are—one game means a lot.

Tonight the Pirates get that chance. They host the Philadelphia Phillies and at least one person believes the Bucs can snap out of a tailspin in which they have lost 12 of 16 and plummeted from third to sixth place in the National League.

"We went from third to sixth in two weeks," Pirate General Manager Joe L. Brown said Thursday. "I think you can reverse that in this league just as easily."

AIMING AT THIRD

Brown believes the Pirates can still finish in the first division, even as high as third.

He attributes Pittsburgh's backslide to injuries which "crippled our club rather severely," and the failure of the club to hit.

On the disastrous road trip the Pirates team average was .232. Jerry Lynch, with one hit in 29 at-bats, and Bill Mazeroski, 0-for-19, are both in slumps.

The Bucs open the 12-game home stand tonight with Joe Gibbon (9-6) facing the Phillies Jim Bunning (14-4).

POWERS IN AL WILL DISCUSS YANKEE SALE

BOSTON (AP)—At long last, after considerable discussion, consternation, unfavorable publicity and some apparent infighting, the American League powers that be are going to get together face to face and discuss the sale of the New York Yankees to CBS.

What's more, says the Columbia Broadcasting System, if it doesn't come out right, they'll pull out of the whole affair.

Just what prompted the meeting is questionable.

The Yankees, in a formal statement, said Topping "wishes to make it known that President Cronin has accepted his request that a meeting be called to resolve any possible doubt as to the validity of the transfer."

"IN BEST INTEREST"

And, in Chicago, Arthur Allyn, president of the White Sox and an outspoken critic of the sale, suggested the meeting was called as a result of a telegram he had his lawyer send to the American League counsel, Ben Fieri.

Joe Cronin, American League president who had once declined to call such a meeting, said it was his own idea.

"I feel it is in the best interest of the league and of all its members that such a meeting be held," he said Thursday.

MEET IN BOSTON

The meeting is set for Sept. 9 in Boston. At issue is (1) the sale of 80 per cent of the Yankees — for four decades the dominant team in baseball — to CBS for $11.2 million, with option to buy the rest in five years, the sale to become final in November, and (2) the constitutionality of the conditions surrounding the sale, which have been questioned by Allyn and Kansas City owner Charles O. Finley, the only dissenting owners in the American League.

The sale was approved by eight of the 10 league members in a telegraphic poll conducted by Cronin. Finley and Allyn have contended that a meeting should have been called to discuss the sale.

Allyn, Finley and scores of Columnists, newspapers and national magazines have decried the sale as putting CBS — as a television network and baseball owners — in the position of both a buyer and a seller. The sale also had drawn attention from the U.S. Congress as a possible violation of the antitrust laws.

Sonny Liston Is Unhurt In Crash

DENVER (AP)—Former heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston escaped injury late Thursday when a car in which he was riding struck a parked car, police said.

Liston said he was asleep when the accident occurred. Mary D. Gonerway, 33, of Denver, who said she was driving the car, suffered a head laceration.

New Delone Grid Staff Has 18 Returning Vets; Face Rough Schedule

When a new head coach steps in to take over a new assignment and finds 18 returning lettermen to form his nucleus, he would ordinarily be most happy about the situation. However, John "JT" Flaherty has different ideas about the Squires of Delone Catholic High School.

Flaherty has been athletic director at Delone for a number of years and also serves as its head basketball coach. When Alan "Buckey" Kempton resigned to accept a New Jersey High School post, Flaherty was called to fill the gap, either temporarily or permanently. Flaherty, a Gettysburg product who has gone down as one of the finest ball players in Delone history. He later played at Maryland and Villanova. John J. "JJ" Scott, a product of West Virginia, is serving as line coach and Vic Mancini, a graduate of Rhode Island University, is tutoring the backfield. Tom Staub and Flaherty are the only holdovers. Gastley will also serve as head JV coach while Staub will remain as the head freshman coach.

When Flaherty was asked how he felt inheriting a solid well-groomed ball club like the Squires with 18 lettermen on hand, he smiled and said, "It's fine, but look at the schedule that goes with it." Delone has been well known to battle the area's heavy opposition and 1964 is no exception.

SIX STARTERS LOST

Delone lost six starters through last June's graduation. The posts which must be filled include a halfback and fullback slot plus a center, guard, tackle and end. The returning starters include quarterback George Emig, a 5'10" junior; halfback Ray Staub, 5'9", 165 pounds; end Phil Staub, 5'10", 170; tackle Jeff Seig, 6'1", 185; and guard Bob Wagner, 5'11", 180. Wagner and Emig will serve as the Squires' cocaptains throughout the season.

Flaherty said, "We'll take these fellows who saw considerable action last year and place them in the vacated spots up front to give us a good powerful line."

The fellows he was referring to included end Joe Keffer, 5'11", 155; tackle Bill Lynch, 5'10", 185; guard, either Bill Reese, 5'9", 155, or Lee Linch, 5'10", 165; and center, either Joe Hockensmith, 5'9", 155, or Ron Groff 5'11", 180.

The Squire mentor stated that ends and guards were the major problem areas but that the centers both had plenty of experience and could carry the season. Wagner was moved from tackle to guard and Seig who was a back, was moved up to tackle. Bill Lynch has a lot of experience, so the entire interior portion of the line is solid in experience and depth.

KNOX TO START

The second halfback slot will be filled by a Gettysburg boy, Dave Knox, 5'9", 155. Knox lettered as a defensive back last season, but saw some offensive action. Ted Elliott, 5'10", 170, who put in considerable time a year ago, will handle the fullback chores. Backing the regular halfbacks will be Mike Marchio and Steve Price, a pair of juniors who have come along quickly. Another junior, Ray Timmins, 6'1", 175, is battling right on the heels of Elliott at fullback and gives Delone two powerful kegs of dynamite at this slot.

Emig is keeping things well under control from the quarterback slot. Brother Don has been moved in from halfback and along with sophomore Mike Sneringer, 6', 165, gives the Squires a solid outlook in the backfield. "We are looking exceptionally good on defense," Flaherty said, "but this only because we have spent considerable time on this phase of the game. With the type of personnel we have, the offense will come quickly." Overall, the Squires seem to be a little more aggressive than in the past couple of years and, as was pointed out, they seem to have a lot more desire and are willing to learn more than before.

Instead of opening with traditional Hanover, Delone will face Chambersburg on September 11 on the Trojans' gridiron. The Hanover tilt will be the last contest of the year on the Delone schedule. Besides the Chambersburg game, the Squires will meet: September 18, Lebanon Catholic, home; 26, Waynesboro, away; October 2, Lancaster Catholic, away; 9, St. Francis Prep, home; 16, Carlisle, home; 23, Westminster, away; 30, Bishop McDevitt, home; November 6, open; 14, South Western, away; 20, Hanover, Sheppard-Meyers field (Delone's home game this year).

TOP DRIVERS AT LINCOLN ON SATURDAY

The top stock car stars in the Pennsylvania area will seek new track records at the Lincoln Speedway Saturday night. The sportsman modified feature will have Bobby Able, Gene Goodling, Frankie Thompson and Bud Folkenroth trying to better the 18.60 mark set by Parnelli Jones in an Offenhauser midgut.

Bobby Able has turned the high banked clay oval in 19.0 seconds. This was 2 better than the old mark held by Bobby Courtwright and Bud Folkenroth.

In addition to the attempts on the track record, a spirited battle still rages for the sportsman-modified point lead. Gene Goodling, Frankie Thompson and Bud Folkenroth have been joined by Irvin King. King is but a 190 points behind the leader Goodling at this writing.

The late model division has also developed a tight point race with Bob Myers challenging point-leader Gene Saine. The 20-lap late model feature noted for its torrid action could cause either of the two top men to be sidelined at any time.

The big "bonus plum" for the champion in both the modified-sportsman and late model division will be a vacation at Dayton Beach, Fla. with all expenses paid, plus $100 spending money to each champion.

STUDY SHOWS OBESITY MAY BE INHERITED

CHICAGO (AP) — Science has a not-too-assuring word for anxious mothers of fat daughters.

A study announced Thursday showed that of 180 teenage fat girls, 175 of them were just naturally built that way.

And furthermore, their builds were largely inherited from their parents.

Technically, Doctors Carl C. Seltzer and Jean Mayer of Harvard University described the 175 fat girls' build as endomorphic, having "a poly-synthetic with the abdomen larger than the chest and relatively small hands and feet."

The endomorph, they said, has a natural tendency to put on fat.

Results of the study were reported in the current issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

PROHIBITION PARTY MEETS

CHICAGO (AP) — The Prohibition party's candidate for president says he regards socialism, secularism, alcoholism, obscene literature and "that satanic menace," communism, as threats to the nation's well-being.

E. Harold Munn, in a speech to the Prohibition party convention Thursday, said the country should meet the evils "with a vigorous and dynamic program of constructive Christian action."

Some 56 delegates attended the party's national campaign convention.

Munn, 59, head of the education department at Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich., told newsmen the party's goal is to take over leadership of the nation's government.

ANTITRUST SUITS HIT 3 STORE CHAINS

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — A $6 million civil antitrust suit accuses three major supermarket chains and the Retail Clerks Union of conspiring to force area-wide labor contracts on independent food stores.

The suit was filed in federal court here Thursday by Vornado Inc., of Garfield, and five subsidiary firms including Two Guys from Harrison, Inc.

Vornado charged that the defendants tried to force an area-wide contract on its Philadelphia area stores.

ACME AND A&P

The defendants are Food Fair, Inc.; Acme Stores, Inc.; The Great Atlantic Pacific Tea & Co. and the Retail Clerks International Association, AFL-CIO. Vornado alleged that through a conspiracy violating the Sherman Antitrust Act, the defendants tried to upset Vornado's competitive position in the Philadelphia area.

The suit said the conspiracy began last April after a uniform Baltimore area contract was approved by Acme, Food Fair and A&P. The settlement ended a retail clerks strike against Acme in Baltimore.

ASK $1 MILLION

Last month, a Philadelphia area contract was approved by the three chains, the suit said.

According to the plaintiffs, the defendants are trying to impose a similar policy throughout the country to the financial injury of independent food stores.

The Retail Clerks were accused of preventing their locals in Northern New Jersey, Borden-town and Allentown, Pa., from bargaining with the plaintiffs on store-by-store basis.

The complaint asks $1 million compensation and $5 million in punitive damages.

In addition to Two Guys from Harrison, Vornado's subsidiaries are Bernie Foods, Inc.; T. G. Stores, Inc.; T. G. Stores, Inc. Virginia, and Webster's Shopping Center, Inc. They operate in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and Georgia.

"We have done some researching in a way that other polls haven't," he added. "We come

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) —This is the duller political convention since the one the Republicans held in 1956, and for the same reason. Yet, it has its own special fascination in the things unseen and unsaid.

In 1956 the Republicans met to go through the motions of approving the uncontested renomination of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Here the Democrats are doing the same for the uncontested nomination of President Johnson.

Then and now there was the usual routine of blasting the opposition.

IGNORE DIFFERENCES

But the Democratic speakers, reciting the wonders of the administrations of Johnson and the late President John F. Kennedy, bracket both men in their eulogies without mentioning the differences between them.

Perhaps the greatest difference was this: Kennedy was an individual kind of president; Johnson is far more the organization man.

Kennedy at the time of his death was still young enough to give a sense of youth to the presidency. Johnson can't. He is deeper in middle age.

SPARKLE MISSING

The words of Kennedy, a far better read man than Johnson and therefore more literary in his thinking, had a sparkle which Johnson's more pedestrian speeches never achieve.

There was a sense of gaiety about Kennedy, a wit and de-up with pretty much the same results but we also see some very good signs of improvement."

tachment about himself and his job, which is lacking in Johnson who sounds more deadly serious and sometimes even doleful.

But Kennedy wasn't in the same league with Johnson in unrelenting presidential drive aimed at persuading people — particularly in Congress — to melt their differences to do what he wanted or some of what he wanted.

HAND AT HELM

He works at organizing his forces in a way Kennedy, just because of his detachment, might never have mastered. It seems a basic part of Johnson's make-up that he must succeed, if not entirely, at least a bit.

It's this part of Johnson which showed up at this convention while he remained in Washington. There can hardly be any doubt his guiding hand is running the show.

If the tone of this convention could be summed up in one word it would be: moderation. The moderation has a double purpose obvious before the convention ever opened here Monday.

The object is keeping the Democrats united while attracting as many independents and Republicans as possible. This is the usual political tactic, of course, but this year it has a special significance.

NEEDED UNITY MEETING

Sen. Barry Goldwater, by his positions on issues and the uncompromising tactics of his supporters at this year's Republican convention, has antagonized a number of Republicans.

The proof is in the fact that after the convention he found it necessary to have a unity meeting with some of the Republican leaders.

To preserve party unity Johnson from the beginning took the opposite course, although total unity seems impossible in those Southern areas where whites have already expressed their antagonism on the racial issue.

But, as the platform shows, Johnson tried to straddle this ticklish situation by the lan## guage of compromise. OFFERS INDUCEMENT

In a clear effort to keep Southerners and Negroes under the Democratic tent the platform assured the latter the Johnson administration would enforce their rights while saying so in language so mild it is calculated not to inflame the South.

For those Republicans who may find Goldwater too forceful or too conservative for their taste, the Democratic platform's moderate liberalism is offered as an inducement to go along with Johnson.

All this is implicit, if unstated, in what has happened here. And all of it is implicit in Johnson's philosophy, illustrated many times in the past, of how to organize to get what he wants.

In 1961 Hurricane Carla smashed into the Texas and Louisiana gulf coast causing insured property damage totaling $100 million.

Two Programs At Downs Labor Day

CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., — Shenandoah Downs will stage its traditional Labor Day double-header September 7, with two complete racing programs on tap.

The twin bill, with halves beginning at 2 and 7 p.m., will offer a pair of nine-race cards, each with twin double and daily double wagering. There will be only one admission charge and one parking charge, however.

The night track pioneered the racing double-header in this area in 1959 and has seen it grow each year. Last Labor Day, two West Virginia records fell when a crowd of 14,076 put $981,913 through the machines. Both were highs for a Mountain State track.

Penn State Gives New Slant To Orientation Wk.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Opportunity orientation has replaced problem orientation for new students at the Pennsylvania State University.

Dr. Donald H. Ford, director of the Division of Counseling, said today that there is need for the new college student to learn of the wide range of opportunities that lie before him.

This program of orientation is started when the new student comes to the campus with his parents for a day of counseling preliminary to registration.

TALENTED GROUP

Several factors, he points out, have brought about the shift in emphasis from problem orientation to opportunity emphasis.

The freshman class entering this fall, Dr. Ford explains, has ability that exceeds that of 90 per cent of the general population.

The Division of Counseling also knows that 40 per cent of the new students have potential ability that equals or exceeds that of the average holder of the Doctor of Philosophy degree, according to Dael Wolfe's studies.

"Such students," Dr. Ford says, "need to be prepared to take advantage of their opportunities, more than they need to learn how to deal with possible problems."

"All the things the university has done in the past six years to improve its programs and assure the graduation of the students it admits have had the following effects," he continues.

FEW DROPOUTS

"Six years ago in June, 800 students had to be dismissed for poor scholarship in June, 1964, less than 300 were dropped for academic failure. During the same six-year period, the number of students on deans' lists increased from 900 to nearly 1,375."

Moreover, there is room for fewer than 40 per cent of the young people who apply for admission to the university. Out of more than 19,000 applications, only 6,000 have been accepted for the 1964 fall term—about the same as in 1963. This means that the university must select only the very best of the applicants.

The Division of Counseling, therefore, points out to the new freshman the decisions that he can make that will lead him into the most rewarding and exciting directions for himself. Counselors point out honors programs in the various colleges, the study abroad program, and the fact that a student may sit in on any class in the university even though he is not taking it for credit.

HUMAN INFLUENCE

They emphasize too that faculty members welcome the chance to talk things over informally with students, and to discuss the opportunities and possibilities for graduate study. They describe sources of financial aid for both undergraduate and graduate students.

As the records and test results of incoming freshmen are studied, the Division of Counseling is able to identify students of outstanding ability and unusual potential.

It has recently become the practice of the counselors to write letters about such students to their college deans, pointing out their special abilities and needs. Such a letter may contribute to the selection of a faculty adviser, alert the dean's office to a candidate for the honors program, or suggest that the student should be encouraged to consider going on for an advanced degree.

"These are some of the things we do to help a student benefit from his opportunities," Dr. Ford concludes, "but it cannot be too strongly emphasized that the crucial ingredient in any educational context is human influence. There are innumerable instances in which a professor's interest and encouragement have made the difference between average achievement and outstanding success in the career of a student with unusual potential."

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Friday, Aug. 28, the 241st day of 1964. There are 125 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1944, advancing American troops reached Chateau Thierry, beginning the re-conquest of a continent the Nazis boasted they had turned into a fortress. It was the same battlefield where their fathers had fought in World War I.

On this date:

In 1913, the Palace of Peace, a gift of Andrew Carnegie, was dedicated at the Hague.

In 1922, the first Walker Cup international golf match was held at Southampton, N.Y.

In 1926, U.S. Marines landed at Bluefields, Nicaragua, where they had been much of the time from 1912 to 1925, remaining again until 1933.

In 1940, German and Italian planes attacked the Egyptian city of Port Said.

In 1946, Moscow announced that food rationing would continue in Russia into 1947.

Ten years ago — A British Labor party delegation including former Prime Minister Clement Attlee, toured Red Chinese cities on its return home by way of Hong Kong.

Five years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan flew to Scotland for an overnight visit with Queen Elizabeth and her family at Balmoral Castle.

One year ago — Some 200,000 Negroes and whites held a civil rights rally in Washington, D.C.

VICTORY IS VERY SWEET FOR SENATOR

By ARTHUR EDSON

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — For Hubert Horatio Humphrey, the man who came back, this was sweet victory indeed.

There he stood Wednesday night, waving, laughing, pointing happily to friends he recognized in the milling crowd below, as thousands cheered in this giant convention hall.

UNHEARD OF CHORE

Everything had gone right for Hubert Humphrey at last. Not only had President Johnson finally picked him as his vice presidential running mate, Johnson had made it all the lovelier by performing an unheard of political chore, coming from Washington to nominate Humphrey in person.

Watching Humphrey in all his glory, it seemed impossible that only four short years ago he looked to be washed up, finished.

But let's go back for a moment, to that rainy night of May 10, 1960, in Charleston, W.Va.

GLOOM EARLIER

This was the windup of a rough, tough campaign. Sen. John F. Kennedy and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota were the two contestants, and they hit each other with all that they had. No one who took part in or who watched that West Virginia Democratic presidential primary will ever forget it.

All the odds were expected to favor Humphrey.

He was a Protestant running against a Roman Catholic in Protestant country.

He spoke the plain, homey language hill folks could understand.

DOESN'T SULK

But the Kennedy resources and the Kennedy political knowledge and the combined energy of the restless Kennedy family changed what looked like certain defeat into spectacular victory.

Humphrey offered his congratulations, and Kennedy, looking as if he were a little embarrassed at so solid a knockout blow, said: "It was very nice of you to come over, Hubert."

But Humphrey isn't one to sulk.

VERY UNDERSTANDABLE

Sen. Pierre Salinger, who as Kennedy's press secretary in West Virginia was on the other side of the primary fence, had only nice things to say about him Wednesday night as he seconded the nomination. Humphrey worked hard in the 1960 fall campaign, Salinger said, and contributed to Kennedy's victory.

So here Humphrey was Wednesday night, so gay, so effervescent, so exuberant, lapping up the applause. And recalling what happened just four years ago, it was easy to see why he loved it.

CENTRALIA, Wash. (AP) — Being a two-car family has its disadvantages.

Robert Smith, Kent, Wash., stopped on the freeway north of here Wednesday after his automobile struck and killed a cow.

Another car slammed into the rear of his, wrecking it. The second car was driven by his wife, Ute.

INSECTICIDES MAY HURT CATS

Pennsylvania cat owners were warned today to keep their pets away from gardens treated with plant sprays, insecticides and fertilizers.

According to the Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association, DDT, Chlordane and Lidane — the common sprays and insecticides — contain chemical elements which can be fatal to cats, and owners should be especially careful their feline pets don't come in contact with them.

Although cats are normally careful about what they eat, running through a recently sprayed garden or lawn will coat them with poisonous materials which they will afterward attempt to lick off, the veterinary group said.

The poison causes vomiting and, occasionally, convulsions. A stricken animal should be immediately taken to a veterinarian for proper treatment.

The association also pointed out that commercial flea and tick sprays especially made for dogs shouldn't be used on cats, since the ingredients are much stronger than a cat can comfortably take.

Smooth Convention Is Result Of LBJ Planning

By ARTHUR EDSON
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — To Lyndon B. Johnson even minor political details are to be studied, to be worried about, and, if anything goes wrong, to blow one's stack over.

Never has this been better illustrated than at the Democratic National Convention.

Wednesday night the whooping delegates nominated Johnson by acclamation.

They waited patiently for the word and, when it came, they shouted Hubert H. Humphrey in as their choice for vice president.

AVOIDED FLOOR FIGHT

They avoided floor fights and adopted a platform with scarcely a dissenting voice, something that hasn't been done in at least a generation.

In short, they did precisely what the political doctor in the White House ordered.

In talking with those who have been deeply involved in this convention, one gets this picture: what happened — or, more importantly, what didn't happen — isn't so much the result of Johnson's busy telephone as it is of Johnson's careful planning.

JFK TRIBUTE TIMED

A man close to the President used this as an illustration: When vice presidential boom-lets for Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy began, Johnson quickly cut him, and a few others, from the running — and thus removed the one man — and the one family — who might have stolen the show from him here.

Even the tribute to the late President John F. Kennedy was prudently put off until tonight: No use stirring up a lot of emotion until all decisions have been made.

Or take the hottest issue this convention had to face: Which delegation from Mississippi should be seated?

HUMPHREY BUSY

A week ago Saturday Humphrey was in California. While there he talked with such Democratic leaders as Gov. Edmund G. Brown, Sen. Pierre Salinger, Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and State Controller Alan Cranston about the potentially explosive Mississippi situation.

When he returned to the White House, he reportedly told Johnson: "If this gets to a vote on the floor, we're done. It's too emotional."

The upshot: Humphrey, who helped to split the party in 1948 by leading a civil rights fight, now was to work to soothe everything over.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
BEAUTY FOOD. A lovely writes: Please tell me why reducing diets stress protein foods. How much protein do you really need and what foods offer the most for the least money?

The Answer: Protein is the base building material of the body—of the skin, hair, nails, organs, blood, bones and muscles. A deficiency takes a toll of your health, energy, looks and even your carriage.

Whether or not you are reducing, you require a half gram of protein every day for each pound of your normal weight. If your normal weight is 120 pounds, your protein quota is 60 grams. Many nutritionists believe, however, that the intake should not fall below 70 grams.

The following table lists the less costly high protein foods with the grams in an average serving: Dried beef, 30; cheaper cuts of beef and lamb, 20; chicken, 20; kidney, 20; liver, 25; turkey, 23; cottage cheese (1/2 cup), 8; eggs, 7; wheat germ, (1 tbsp.), 8; fish, 20; glass of milk, 8.

Other foods supply protein. But some of them provide small quantities at higher calorie counts. Others offer incomplete protein, which lacks the essential amino acids to beauty-building.

A thought to ponder is that your body makes a complete turnover in protein every six months. If you don't take in enough to compensate for depletions, you just can't be as healthy, handsome or wise as you should be.

POCKET CALORIE COUNTER
Do you really know the calorie counts of the foods you eat? Our new booklet, POCKET CALORIE COUNTER, tells the score at a glance. It also gives a diet plan—a way to eat and slim. For your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 10 cents in coin.

NEGROES SLOW TO USE RIGHTS IN CAMBRIDGE

By STEPHENS BROENING
CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP) — It's been more than a year since Cambridge was caught up in the first wave of what has since been called the Negro revolution.

A lot has happened since. The streets no longer are filled with Negro demonstrators, the Maryland National Guard no longer is keeping the peace and there no longer is the sound of gunshots.

Cambridge sits warily as tride serenity.

CREDITS CIVIL RIGHTS ACT
Charles Cornish, the Negro president of the five-man City Council, says it's because of the passage of the Civil Rights Act. The city attorney, C. Awdry Thompson, says, "It's up to the national civil rights leaders; if they want something to happen, it will happen. If they don't it won't."

Another explanation given is the prolonged absence of Mrs. Gloria Richardson, who led the turbulent civil rights struggle here and who, more than anyone else, is held responsible by the whites for the earlier crises. Mrs. T. N. Booth, Mrs. Richardson's mother, says her daughter is in Newark, N.J.

A civil rights law, as Cornish points out, has been enacted, and it forbids racial discrimination in most restaurants.

OFFER ACCOMMODATIONS
Open accommodations was a prime target of Negroes a year ago. And yet local Negroes are taking no advantage of the law's provisions now.

In the first days after the bill's enactment there were tests by civil rights workers, and with the exception of a restaurant whose owner said his income was derived largely from beer sales, the Negroes were served without fail.

But white restaurant owners say they have had no Negro trade since. They point to this in support of their contention that the racial crisis here was brought on by "outside agitators."

Stanley Wise, a lieutenant in Mrs. Richardson's Cambridge Nonviolent Action Committee, says only, "We're concentrating on schools and jobs now."

HIGH UNEMPLOYMENT
In a county designated as an economically distressed area, Negroes have been especially hard hit. The unemployment rate among Negroes has been twice that of whites.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—War is evil. War is ugly. War is wrong. Most of all, however, war is boring and wasteful.

But now and then the long black hours of boredom in war are broken by a bright moment of pure poetry.

Such a moment came 20 years ago this week when French and American troops "liberated" Paris. Actually, Paris itself was not so much liberated as they themselves were freed. To the soldiers, worn from the green hell of Normandy hedgerows, the wide boulevards of "the City of Light" seemed like paths through paradise.

INDELIBLE DATE

Time gives most of us more midnights than mornings. But to anyone who was in Paris on Aug. 25, 1944, that date remains indelibly engraved in his mind as one of the milestones of his life.

Paris at any time is a delight to the eye of any boy from Elmsville, U.S.A., but on liberation day it was also an utter ecstasy of the spirit.

Everybody was laughing, everybody was young. All the girls were pretty and kissable, and there were no bottoms to the wine bottles.

There was no difference between day and night, and it seemed like the celebrating would go on forever.

Of course, it couldn't—and it didn't. That blinding morning of happiness finally wore out. The have been started in the past year, one under the Area Redevelopment Administration, the other under the Manpower Adequacy Training Act.

The third major Negro grievance was school segregation—in the case of Dorchester County, the five lower grades remained segregated after seven years of one-grade-a-year integration.

DROP RACE BARRIER

Last fall the school board dropped the barriers in the last five grades, but retained its policy of requiring parents to request in writing the transfer of their children to another school. Now leaderless, Cambridge Negroes seem much as they did before it all began.

A white official predicts, "if you come back five years from now, it'll be the same as it was five years ago."

people of Paris went back to work, you had to start paying for the wine, and war again became a long, slow, boring, plodding trudge toward victory.

REUNION OF MEN

The other evening a group of graying ex-soldiers and paunchy former war correspondents met at the Overseas Press Club in New York and rekindled briefly the lost rapture of liberation day in Paris.

"Remember when—" said one fellow.

"Yes, and remember when—" said another fellow, who couldn't quite remember the first fellow's name.

In a way it was sad, as most reunions are. It is hard to warm the heart over the ashes of a 20-year-old bonfire. And missing were such familiar figures as Ernie Pyle, "Red" Knickerbocker, Ernest Hemingway, A. J. Liebling, Clark Lee and Bob Capa, all gone down time's drain.

RECALLS ERNIE PYLE

Looking back across the last two decades, I can think of no one who knew better the dangers of war and perils of peace than Ernie Pyle. Numbbed himself by the horrors of combat, he wrote shortly before the liberation of Paris:

"All of us together will have to learn how to reassemble our broken world into a pattern so firm and so fair that another great war cannot soon be possible."

"Submersion in war does not necessarily qualify a man to be the master of the peace. All we can do is fumble and try once more—try out of the memory of our anguish—and be as tolerant with each other as we can."

TRIUMVIRATE NAMED TO RUN S. VIET NAM

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Diplomatic sources said Thursday military leaders named Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh and two other generals to run South Viet Nam for 60 days.

The move came amid new riots in which troops reportedly killed three demonstrators in a crowd of 2,000 during new riots.

There was no immediate confirmation from the government of the new triumvirate.

The ruling military junta has been trying for two days to name a chief of government to fill the vacancy left when Khanh stepped down as president and scrapped the constitution in the face of mounting demonstrations from Buddhists and student groups.

FIRE ON MOB

Today's casualties were reported when government troops fired on a mob of 2,000 which tried to enter a compound where junta members were meeting to choose a new head of state.

A Roman Catholic group pushed toward the military compound and a Saigon radio station, Buddhist and student groups massed to confront the Catholics at the radio station.

The demonstrators demanded that the council resist Buddhist and student demands that it step down and pave the way for civilian rule.

Reliable sources said that Lt. Gen. Tran Thien Khien, former minister of defense; and Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, former president, were named with Khanh as members of the triumvirate.

TO ELECT HEAD

An announcement received in Saigon by diplomatic sources said the three would rule until a national congress elects a head of government.

Khanh stepped down Tuesday in the face of widespread student demonstrations. Minh had been figurehead chief of state

Gracie Allen, Star Of Vaudeville, Radio, TV, Dies Of Heart Attack

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Gracie Allen, whose scatterbrained comedy helped make Burns and Allen a top act in show business for 34 years, died Thursday night after a heart attack. She was 58.

Spokesmen for the family said Miss Allen died at 11:15 p.m. and that her husband, comedy actor George Burns, was at her side at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

Contacted at the Burns home in Beverly Hills, William Burns, George's brother, said the popular comedienne had been in seemingly good health before being stricken.

HAD MILD ATTACKS

He said she had experienced mild heart attacks in the past. They didn't, however, seem to slow her down much. Ten days ago she and her husband were among the guests at the gala wedding reception for Edie Adams and her new husband, Marty Miller.

She appeared effervescent and cheerful, as she has been since her retirement in 1958.

Until then, the strain of sustaining her nitwit role sometimes made her tense and withdrawn.

At the time of her retirement, Burns explained why she quit: "She's never missed acting for a minute. She never was a ham, anyway. Most actors are aware of playing to an audience. Not Gracie. The side of the stage toward the audience was a wall to her. She concentrated only on what she had to say and never gave a thought to cameras or lights or makeup or anything."

"REAL ACTRESS"

"She deserved a rest. She had been working all her life, and her lines were the toughest in the world to do. They didn't make sense, so she had to memorize every word. It took a real actress."

"Every spare moment — in bed, under the hair dryer — had to be spent in learning lines. Do you wonder that she's happy to be rid of it?"

Miss Allen was born in San Francisco in the year of the great earthquake. Named Grace Ethel Cecile Rosalie Allen, she was one of four daughters of Edward Allen, a song and dance man then booked in San Francisco.

DEBUT AT 3½

At 3½ she had made her stage debut. But she continued in Catholic schools until she was 14, when she began a dancing act with her three older sisters.

Later, she joined an Irish song and dance act and at one time went to secretarial school in Hoboken, N.J. It was in New Jersey that she met George.

She saw him on a bill at Union Hill, N.J., where he was booked as Burns and Lorraine. They met after the show and George revealed he was seeking a new partner. He suggested that Gracie join him.

Gracie recalled later: "Of course George had written this act for himself, with himself as the comedian and I as the straight man. But the funny thing — my straight lines got the laughs. People laughed twice as hard at my not being funny as they laughed at George's being funny. When we came off after the first show, he said, 'We're switching parts, Gracie.' He rewrote the act then and there."

MARRIED IN 1926

Burns and Allen played vaudeville for three years before he was able to convince her they should get married. They were wed in Cleveland on Jan. 7, 1926.

After their marriage they were propelled into the big time.

They became headliners in vaudeville and starred on the bill that ended Vaudeville at New York's Palace Theater. After guest-starring on Rudy Vallee and Guy Lombardo radio programs, they began their own show on Feb. 15, 1932.

Their career continued in radio and television until Gracie's retirement.

George once analyzed his wife's humor: "Gracie is not really crazy. If she were, we couldn't get a day's work."

"ILLOGICAL LOGIC"

"Gracie has a sort of illogical logic. To her, everything else is a little nuts, and after listening to her, you think maybe she's right."

DEATHS

LEVITTOWN, N. Y. (AP) — Sammy Goldman, 74, manager of boxing champions Pete Herman and Tony Canzoneri, died Thursday after a long illness.

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Julio Mendoza, 64, retired matador who appeared in the world's major bullfights from 1922 until 1952, died Thursday.

The Burneses lived in the same Beverly Hills home for 25 years and were a part of the social life, usually in tandem with their close friends, Jack and Mary Benny. The Burneses had two adopted children, Sandra, born in 1934, and Ronald, in 1935.

CLEO PLAYED MANY TRICKS IN HER PATH

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An airplane flew without a pilot, a man sunk his boat in a swimming pool to protect it and a group of children had an ice cream party because of Hurricane Cleo.

In Miami, a twin-engined DC3 apparently took off from Opa-Locka Airport as Cleo swirled. Nobody saw the flight, but the plane cleared several obstacles that could have been avoided only by traveling up.

"She just snapped her ropes and took off," said maintenance man Brian MacDonald. "All that wind rushing under the wings creates lift, and that's all you need to fly."

SAVES MOTORBOAT

In West Palm Beach, a young suburbanite dropped his motorboat into his backyard swimming pool to protect it from Cleo's 100-mile winds, a trick fishermen learned centuries ago when they sunk their craft into lagoons and rivers at the approach of bad weather. Then, as now, it works.

ICE CREAM PARTY

A West Palm Beach housewife inadvertently stocked up on a freezer full of ice cream the afternoon before Cleo struck. Her power went out and the ice cream threatened to drip all over the kitchen.

Instead, she hauled it out and gave the neighborhood children an ice cream party.

"WORSE THAN ARGONNE"

In Delray Beach, a veteran of World War I said Cleo was "worse than Argonne." The man, C. J. Hiet, 72, is custodian at the drive-in theater and lives at the bottom of the huge, extra wide screen in a four-room apartment.

Cleo ripped the screen apart bit by bit, hurling 4x4 wood beams through the ceiling of Hiet's apartment. "I just kept retreating from room to room as the beams came through the ceiling," he said. "This was my first hurricane and I hope it is my last."

2 TRUSTIES ESCAPE

In Miami, two trustees at the Dade County Jail were assigned mopping up duties after Hurricane Cleo, and took advantage of the confusion to escape — barefooted.

Launch Satellite For Weather Pix

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — A new storm-hunting Nimbus satellite vehicle rocketed into the sky early today with cameras designed to take 2,000 pictures of the world's weather every day.

The 91-foot-tall Thor-Agena booster rocket roared aloft at 1 a.m. Pacific Daylight Time.

It was aimed at a 575-mile-high polar orbit from which it could photograph every square mile of the rotating earth's cloud cover at least once a day.

Television cameras similar to those that took Ranger 7's historic close-ups of the moon and night-time infrared picture gear reportedly adapted from secret Samos and Midas space-spy satellites are expected to improve forecasters' ability to spot storms brewing far at sea.

Emotional Outburst At Convention When JFK Memorial Is Presented

By JOHN BECKLER

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Tears glistened in the eyes of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as he faced the cheering thousands.

He stood solemn and silent during the 13-minute emotional outburst touched off when he went before the Democratic National Convention Thursday night to honor the memory of his brother, the assassinated President John F. Kennedy.

There were no balloons, no gimmicks, no rousing band music to spur the delegates to action. There was only an outpouring of emotion.

TRIED 7 TIMES

Robert Kennedy, who is now a candidate for the U.S. Senate from New York, stood with head bowed while the wave of noise swept over him while he waited to introduce a film portraying highlights of his brother's brief years as President.

Seven times Kennedy sought to begin his speech, but could not get farther than "Mr. Chairman." Each attempt touched off a swelling roar from the throats of the thousands of delegates and spectators that carried the tumult ever higher.

Twice he stepped back and convention officials tried to still the noise, but without effect. Finally, as Kennedy once again began to speak over the shouting, it subsided, and a twinkling rap silence replaced the noise. It was, at once, the quietest, and most poignant moment of the four-day convention.

TOUCHING FILM

As Kennedy spoke of the hopes and ideals that sustained his brother during his three years as President, and of his pride in the Democratic party, many delegates wept.

Even more handkerchiefs appeared during the film that followed, especially at the end when President Kennedy was shown playing with his children and taking part in happy family activities.

The attorney general took a seat at the back of the platform while the film ran. He watched part of it on a television set in front of him, then turned to watch it on the huge screen mounted at the end of convention hall for the delegates to see.

But as the final, family scenes unrolled he turned away from both and sat looking into space. And when the lights came back on, he ducked his head below the platform wall and dabbed at his eyes with a handkerchief before walking quickly out the back.

FIRST SIGN OF "GIVE" BY FORD

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) — The first sign of "give" in new contract bargaining between the United Auto Workers Union and the automotive industry's Big Three came from Ford Motor Co. Thursday.

Ford agreed in principle to extension of its current contract with the UAW until Sept. 9. Normally, the three-year-old pact would expire Monday night.

The UAW announced Wednesday night it had picked Chrysler Corp. as its 1964 strike target and would call its 80,000 members in Chrysler plants out at 10 a.m. Sept. 9 unless agreement is reached on a new contract by that time.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said Chrysler, Ford and General Motors Corp. would be asked to extend their contracts to the strike deadline.

GM and Chrysler told newsmen Thursday they would await a formal union request across the bargaining table before announcing a decision.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph B. Huttlinger, 45, columnist and correspondent for several oil and gas industry trade papers, died of an apparent heart attack Wednesday night at his home in Alexandria, Va. He was a native of New York City and a graduate of Columbia University.

Tourist interest in Indian crafts has increased in the United States.

Political Campaign Is Nothing New For Lady Bird

By FRANCES LEWINE

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Another campaign is nothing new for Lady Bird Johnson. She's thrived on them for 27 years.

In the nine months she's served as the nation's 32nd First Lady, Mrs. Johnson traveled about 35,000 miles across America, helping to promote the administration of her husband, President Johnson.

She barely paused from official and political travel to get to the convention.

UNUSUAL ENERGY

Some idea of the pace she maintains was shown in Mrs. Johnson's recent four-day Western tour in which she kept up an 18-hour-a-day schedule.

At 51, black-haired, brown-eyed Mrs. Johnson continues to have unusual energy and enthusiasm for the tasks of greeting constituents and "people-seeing," as she calls her trips. And, she has a dogged devotion to duty.

One reason for her trips, Mrs. Johnson explains, is that "statistics only come alive when you see the people behind them."

"BEST QUALIFIED"

As a political wife, she probably holds the title "best-qualified" from experience alone.

She got a $10,000 advance on her inheritance from her father to back Johnson's first congressional campaign in 1937 — and she's been busy backing him ever since.

Catapulted into the White House upon the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, she took on the role of First Lady with the smoothness and ease of long training in Washington ways.

EXTRA EYES, EARS

It is generally agreed that not since Eleanor Roosevelt, has a First Lady taken on so much or involved herself so keenly in the husband's projects. Mrs. Johnson also serves as an extra set of eyes and ears to keep the man in the White House informed.

Mrs. Johnson has overcome her own shyness and with some professional help has been perfecting a smooth delivery of speeches, which lately have been taking on a more political tinge.

Her greatest asset is the feeling of genuine warmth and interest that she displays on her trips and visits.

WEARS SIZE 10

Except that she's busier, being in the White House hasn't changed Mrs. Johnson. She still goes out to the hairdresser instead of having him come in. She manages to shop once in a while without being recognized. And she doesn't mind a bit being seen in the same dress more than once. In fact, she makes a point to say she thinks "clothes should serve the person, not the other way around."

She's still in the size 10 she's been for years, weighs about 114 pounds, and keeps that way by dieting when needed, often on prunes and hard-boiled eggs.

Mostly Mrs. Johnson prefers not to wear hats, but she conforms at all major functions.

LOTS OF YELLOW ROSES

Only last week, she took a "stolen moment," with 20-year-old daughter, Lynda, and the two strolled to the nearby Tidal Basin south of the White House and went out in a paddle boat to relax alone.

Because she was born in Texas like her husband, Mrs. Johnson is constantly greeted with the strains of "The Yellow Rose of Texas" and bouquets of yellow roses are presented to her at almost every stop. She usually pauses before she leaves to write a note and send the flowers she can't use on to a local hospital or someone needy.

When she signs autographs in crowds, recipients often are surprised to see what she's written. It's "LBJ" — but those are her initials as well as the President's.

NAMED CLAUDIA

Actually, Mrs. Johnson was named Claudia Alta Taylor when she was born Dec. 12, 1912, in the East Texas town of Karnack, where her father, Thomas Jefferson Taylor, operated a general store and owned cotton lands.

But, nobody ever calls her that. It's "Lady Bird," the name a nursemaid settled on her at the age of two, declaring "Why, she's as purty as a lady bird." Mrs. Johnson tried hard to lose the nickname, but it stuck and she has accepted it, too.

She carries into her everyday speech the poetic and colorful phrases that her close associates say comes from a lonely childhood spent reading her mother's library filled with classics.

REARED BY AUNT

Her mother, Minnie Pattillo Taylor, from a wealthy Alabama family, died when Lady Bird was 5 years old and she was brought up by a maiden aunt, Effie Pattillo, who saw her through Marshall High School, where she was graduated at 15, and on to St. Mary's School for Girls in Dallas.

Lady Bird majored in history at the University of Texas in Austin, where she earned a bachelor of arts degree in 1933 and went on for a degree in journalism the following year.

Tail Texan Lyndon Johnson came into Lady Bird's life before she could start the careers she contemplated as a qualified grade teacher, also trained in shorthand, typing and business courses that would have come in handy in secretary work.

QUICK PROPOSAL

They were introduced by a friend. Lyndon proposed the next day and they were married two months later, Nov. 17, 1934, at old St. Mark's Episcopal church in San Antonio, Tex. She was 21, he 26.

Mrs. Johnson inherited money and lands from her Alabama relatives and with some of the money she decided in 1942 to invest in a small, debt-ridden radio station, KTBC, in Austin. In the years since, she has built it into a multimillion-dollar enterprise.

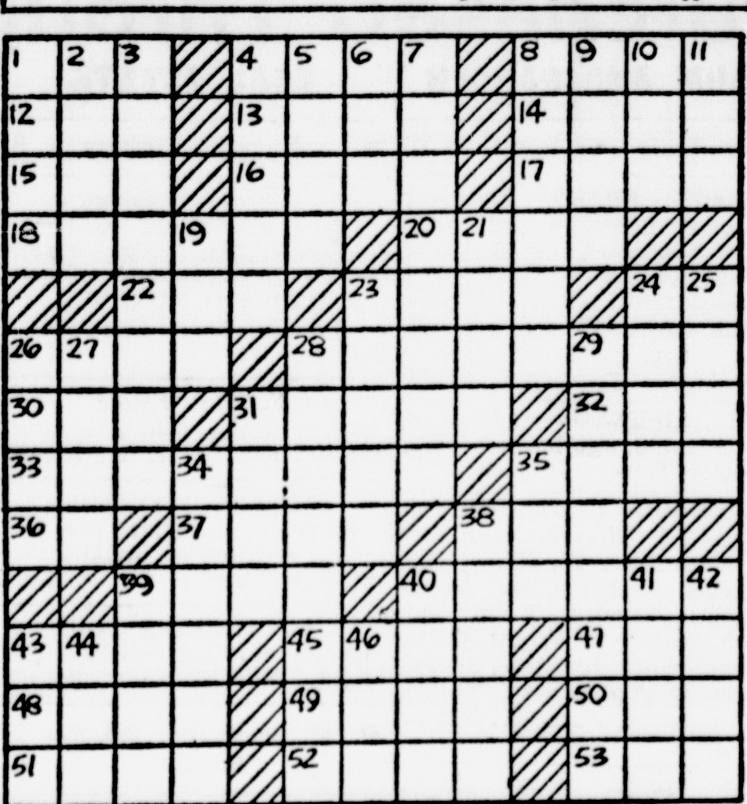

When the President released a financial statement for his family just before the Democratic convention, it revealed that through a 10-year period, from 1954 to 1964, she was paid more for her services to Texas Broadcasting Corp., than her husband received in the same period as senator, vice president and President. She got $570,856.

BOY BLAMED FOR BIG FIRE

HARRISBURG (AP) — A 10-year-old boy is charged with intentionally setting the $1.25 million fire that destroyed the Sears, Roebuck and Co. warehouse and service center on Aug. 17.

Sgt. James J. Regan, a state police fire marshal, said Thursday he had filed a petition against the boy with the Dauphin County probation office.

County Judge R. Dixon Herman issued a court order giving custody of the boy to his parents pending an appearance in juvenile court. The boy's identity was not disclosed.

A dozen firemen received minor injuries while fighting the fire, which burned out of control for more than three hours.

Regan said an investigation revealed that the fire started in a waste storage shed adjacent to the block-long, two-story brick structure.

TO CONFER ON HOMES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Arlin M. Adams, state secretary of welfare, says he has invited representatives of Philadelphia nursing homes to meet with him here Sept. 4 in an effort to avert a threatened action to bar public assistance patients.

Although state funds allocated to the nursing homes will be increased Sept. 1, the homes have indicated they will not accept public assistance cases Oct. 1.

The 4-H Klover Kids will hold a mother-daughter picnic Thursday evening, September 3 from 6:30 to 9 o'clock at the home of Jerry Hann, Gettysburg R. 3. The date was changed from Sept. 1. Each girl will bring a covered dish. Recreation will follow the picnic.

Around The Town

Halo Meadows and Bill De Forest star Fridays in the Orient Room of the Hollywood Inn in Hollywood, Calif., in "Three Flames," life of a successful man and three women who burn like flames in his heart.

Halo, under her pen names, M. L. Stonesifer and Louise Howard, dedicates most of her writing to her home town, Littlestown, Pa., which is publicized as the greatest little town in the world, being nonpartisan on Mason-Dixon line.

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — It was a case of crackers and milk at an A&P supermarket, police said — safe crackers. The thieves broke in, then used milk from the dairy case to cool the drill they used to cut holes in the back of the safe, investigators reported. They got $100.
